

APPLICATION HISTORY
LASAL, SNOWBALL MINE
UNION CARBIDE CORP. ACT/037/026
SAN JUAN COUNTY, UTAH

May, 1975	Prior mining activity.
March 10, 1977	Brian Buck and Ron Daniels inspection.
June 23, 1977	Mining and Reclamation Plan received (12 acre disturbance).
April 12, 1978	Inspection by Division staff members Jim Smith and Mike Thompson.
November 14, 1978	Letter received stating responsibility for water evaporation ponds.
November 28, 1978	Surety calculated. 5% inflation for 14 years $46,300.
December 8, 1978	Michael Minder and Mike Thompson of the Division inspected minesite.
December 14, 1978	Division sent letter with MR(8) form.
December 21, 1978	Executive Summary presented in Memorandum to the Board. Tentative approval was issued.
December 29, 1978	Publication date in Salt Lake Tribune.
January 4, 1979	Publication date in San Juan Record.
January 16, 1979	Letter from the Division of Wildlife Resources indicating mine is located on crucial-critical or high-priority deer winter range.
February 5, 1979	Mined Lands Reclamation contract executed.
May 2, 1979	Final approval issued for the 17 acre site.
December 12, 1980	1979 annual report sent with apologies.
March 4, 1981	1980 annual report sent.
January 28, 1982	A revised bond estimate form was received from Union Carbide for 14 years, total - $115,428.17.

Snowball Mine History
Page 2

February 4, 1982	A 1981 Annual Operations and Progress Report was received at the Division. The Division acknowledged the receipt of the report.
March 4, 1982	A revised acreage disturbance projection was received requesting a 50 acre total.
April 6, 1982	The Division inspected the minesite; development of test plots was requested.
April 21, 1982	The Division sent a letter to Union Carbide requesting information and suggesting test plot design parameters.
June 4, 1982	The Division received an answer to a previous question posed about topsoil.
July 7, 1982	The Division received soils analyses reports from the company.
July 9, 1982	Division test plot and revegetation proposals were sent to Union Carbide.
July 13, 1982	The Division inspected the Hecla Mine site and discussed test plot designs.
March 17, 1983	Comments on the original March 4, 1982 revision (mine plan acreage and bond) were sent to Union Carbide indicating they were unsatisfactory.
March 30, 1983	The 1982 Annual Report was received.
April 6, 1983	The Division inspected the minesite and discussed revisions.

TNT/lm